Study plan

Please note that a non-degree seeking student is able to enroll in courses offered by Thammasat University under the following conditions:

- A student must meet eligible criteria determined by the host Faculties/Programs.
- Courses are available in that semester to enroll. Not all listed courses are offered every semester or year. Please be flexible when enrolling in the subject. Check the list of tentative courses for the semester(s) on the host Faculty/Program websites. You may choose other courses that you are interested in from the complete list. If you are interested in credit transfer, you need to consult with your academic advisor at your home university. Course submission for credit transfer approval should be completed prior to your departure.
- Applicants must have the necessary pre-requisite background, if required by the host Faculty/Program.
- You are required to enroll in at least 9 credits per semester with the Faculty / Program to which you are going to apply.
- A Student may withdraw from courses only if the over-all registration load does not fall below 9 credits (unless the student obtains approval from the Dean). Withdrawn courses will not appear on the student's academic record. The withdrawal period is generally within the first three weeks of the semester. However, each Faculty/Program in which an international student is enrolled may have slightly different policies. Such information will be provided either prior to or during orientation organized by each Faculty/Program. No withdrawals are permitted without the approval of the Program Director and/or the Dean of the Faculty.
- Approval to enroll in courses is made by the host Faculty/Program.
- The Office of International Affairs is not able to guarantee that your intended courses will be available when you register for courses. You need to be flexible by considering alternative courses.

Please contact the Office of International Affairs in advance if you are interested in studying in regular Thai classes. Links to the information about the international programs and course offerings can be found on the Office of International Affairs website. Regular Thai program information can be found on the Thammasat University homepage.
