

SDGS & ECO-BUSINESS SHORT PROGRAM

Period : 1 day - 1 Week

Objectives :

- Experience community engagement and CSR activities
- Develop practical ideas for SDG implementation

Learning Outcomes

- Understand the SDGs and their global importance.
- Recognize how businesses contribute to sustainability.
- Develop teamwork and problem-solving skills.
- Create a sustainable business or social impact idea.
- Understand ecosystem collaboration.
- Improve presentation and pitching skills.
- Gain exposure to Thailand's sustainability ecosystem.

Target Customers: Universities and schools seeking to organize short programs or joint short-term international programs abroad for their students.

Price: Available upon request (depending on program duration, number of participants, and customized activities).

Schedule :

Monday - Friday

09.00 - 12.00 |

Interactive Lectures : Introduction to the SDGs , Global SDGs , SDGs and social innovation , Sustainable Cities and Communities , Climate Action , Green & Sustainable Business , Decent Work and Economic Growth , Responsible Consumption and Production

13.00 - 15.00 |

Workshop: SDG Design Thinking , Waste management and circular economy , Designing SDG solutions , Design an Eco-Business , Green Startup Pitch

Group discussion: Local challenges and SDG solutions

Saturday

Field Visit : Visits may include: Community service (environmental cleanup, tree planting, eco-community or education support)

Further information : jvarinya@tu.ac.th